

As a child abuse social worker traveling all over southern Ca. I found your traffic and weather invaluable. No other radio station can compete with the thoroughness you offer to drivers. You give me the option of taking the freeway without the jam. How dare anyone try to quash this needed service?